

Snap, Sizzle, Pop!

with Steve March-Tormé

"Quite simply, an extraordinary musical event!"
- Naples Sun Times

"Seductive, Effortless & Joyous!"
- L.A. Times

"True vocal chops"
- People Magazine

"Hit yourself if you miss this one"
- New York Daily News

Snap, Sizzle, Pop!

SNAP, SIZZLE, POP! Steve March-Torme's latest show features finger snapping jazz standards, cleverly crafted original songs and enduring pop tunes presented in captivating, charismatic style by a singer whose extraordinary voice both smolders and electrifies! Backed by a sizzling trio, Steve's brand of pop-jazz is served up with wit, charm and a warmth that will leave your heart singing!

Steve is a son of Mel Tormé, the well-known crooner with the silky smooth voice who became known for his scat singing and as the composer of The Christmas Song, made famous by Nat King Cole. Steve currently tours worldwide as a singer/entertainer, offering a variety of platforms: a jazz trio ensemble, a big band show, a dektette show entitled "Torme Sings Torme," and a full 70 piece symphony show entitled "From Broadway to Bernstein, From Mercer to Mel". He's performed in 46 of the 50 states, in addition to concerts in Australia, Canada, Japan, Brazil, London and Italy.

Show Highlights:

Stardust • Route 66 • The Christmas Song • Sweet Georgia Brown • Lulu's Back In Town
The Trolley Song • Blue Skies • Born To Be Blue • Green Dolphin Street
The Folks Who Live On The Hill • Blue Moon • What Is This Thing Called Love
The Way You Look Tonight • Lover Come Back To Me • We Can Work It Out
You Don't Know Me • A Night At The Zoo • Blink Of An Eye • Stranger Birds Do Fly